

SCOP Architecture

Architect	General Information	Works
Frank Gehry	Canadian Deconstructivist	Walt Disney Concert Hall, Los Angeles; Guggenheim Museum, Bilbao, Spain (see Guggenheim, New York, by Wright); Experience Music Project, Seattle
Walter Gropius	German Bauhaus (founder)	Fagus Shoe Factory, Alfeld, Germany; Bauhaus, Dessau, Germany
Le Corbusier *Charles-Eduoard Jeanneret	Swiss-French International Syle	United Nations, New York; Villa Savoye, Poissy, France; Wrote Towards a New Architecture
Ludwig Mies van der Rohe	German International Style	“Mies van der Rohe” is required as a last name. “Less is more;” Seagram Building, New York (with Philip Johnson)
Andrea Palladio	Italian Renaissance	Villa Rotunda; Wrote Four Books on Architecture
I(eoh) M(ing) Pei	Chinese-American Modern	Glass pyramid at the Louvre, Paris, France; Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Chicago; John Hancock Building, Boston; Mile High Center, Denver; National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder
Eero Saarinen	Finnish-American Neo-Expressionist	Gateway Arch, St. Louis; TWA terminal, Kennedy Airport, New York; Dulles International Airport; son of Eliel Saarinen
Louis Sullivan	American Skyscrapers	Wainwright Building, St. Louis; Carson Pirie Scott Building, Chicago; “Form ever follows function”
Sir Christopher Wren	English	Rebuilt London after the Great Fire of 1666; Saint Paul’s Cathedral, London, England
Frank Lloyd Wright	American Prairie Style	Kaufman House (Fallingwater), Pennsylvania; Robie House, Chicago; Taliesin, Wisconsin (personal home); Taliesin West, Arizona (personal home, constructed after original burned down); Guggenheim Museum, NYC (see Guggenheim, Bilbao, by Gehry); Imperial Hotel, Tokyo, Japan